SINGLE MALT SCOTCHES

ISLAY

Most prominent and urbane of the Scottish islands which produces the lustiest and most unique single malts owing their originality and vigor to the robust sea air, which bestows a salty tang to the aroma, and the intense islay peat, which in some moors lays an astounding thirty feet deep and imparts a unique flavor to the distillate.

Lagavulin 16 Y.O.

Laphroaig 10 Y.O.

LOWLANDS

North of the Border that separates England from Scotland is the region known as the Lowlands. Lowland malts are among the lightest made, in color and flavors.

Glenkinchie 12 Y.O.

SPEYSIDE

This northeastern sector of mainland Scotland produces more high quality whisky than any other region, not just in Scotland, but in the world. These are velvety, sumptuous and powerful single malts ~ the Rolls-Royces of scotch.

Balvenie Founder's Reserve 10 Y.O.

Balvenie Doublewood 12 Y.O.

Balvenie Single Barrel 15 Y.O.

Macallan 12 Y.O.

THE HIGHLANDS

From the seaside bluffs of this lonely region come splendid single malts which are lighter and more floral than those from other regions, subtly imparting a faint briny aftertaste, which betrays their proximity to the North Atlantic.

Glenmorangie

"The Quinta Ruban" 12 Y.O.

Oban 14 Y.O.

SKYE

The Isle of Skye makes only one single malt. This whisky is full flavored with a distinctive peaty taste and "marine" character.

Talisker 10 Y.O.

The Glenlivet 12 Y.O.

The Glenlivet

Nadurra 16 Y.O.

The Glenlivet 21 Y.O.

Glenfiddich Ancient Reserve 18 Y.O.
